

Keen-Agers at Coburg Table Tennis Club. February 2013.

Shootout Winners: - Ellen & Mario beat Norma & Victor.

Bomber Cath & Julie beat Mairi & Des; the dance was only so/so.

Mairi in her first S/out made the final, good to see Des back telling jokes & having a hit with us; he can relax now that his plants are growing well from his T L C. Victor & Neil 1 beat Margaret & Jess.

Irene's Quotes = [1] If you lose your Hearing Aids, look in the rubbish bin: [2] Plumbers never bring a hose to a job.

We need a quick recovery from you Maureen please. Madge is hopeless without you, she finished covered in cream which Ellen wanted for her Plum slice. Madge's daughter has returned to the U S A. Claire made another comeback. We hope she can get a few games together, I won't mention she has played the last three occasions. We are pleased to see that Franca has made her comeback. Jeanine seems to like learning the game so keep at it. I thought it was St. Patrick's Day but Trish2 looked nice in her All green outfit & a green bat. Mairi thought she was back where the Mountains of Mourne sweep down to the Sea. We must thank Kevin for his Trophies / Donations again. At last I can write something about Euthy; if she arrives any later morning tea will be over. Norma was packed up & leaving early, one hour later she was still there talking. We thought John M. had exclusive rights to being last to leave. Mario & Charles won a pennant final last week. Well done. They are too young to be Keen-Agers but we will claim them as long as they keep winning finals.

A big problem: How do we tell Trish from Kaye? Trish suggested name tags but we are thinking a Tattoo. [Where?]

Another problem: When is Ellen's daughter going to have her baby? As we all know Ellen was a week overdue when she had the daughter and yet another problem, John Alder has been quoted " I am going to concentrate on playing more with the Keen-Agers ". Heaven Forbid.

Neil 2 is not a Lance Armstrong; he only eats all our Biscuits before he starts his bike trip home. Neil has a friend that knows Bill McM. If we had known that we would not have let Neil in the door.

The next exciting issue shall feature a review of Bruce's very good Newsletter, Bill McM's new hairdo, Irene & Millie. Duncan 14?

Two final messages. Don't forget Kath C's – Ajax spray & wipe coloured transparent bottles and Edis "Get out of the car & come inside "

Tony McMahan.
