

Keen - Agers at Coburg Table Club.

(From the eyes of a new member.)

I was reading the local paper, when an article caught my eye,
Twas about the City's Oldies, getting together without being shy.
Table tennis was the topic, looking for new members, to come and have a go,
This being a game I like to play, I knew I'd have to show.
When I walked inside the door, I started talking to Bruce,
I admitted to him of feeling, a bit like a footloose goose
For I thought that my age would hold me back, was I living in the past.
Bruce's reply was go have a hit, nobody says you have to be fast.
All the people that come here, are eager to get fit and enjoy.
And playing this game of tennis is the method that they employ.
In the short time that Ive been going, amongst the new friends that I've met,
It sure makes a person realise, there's a lot to be learned of life yet.
If you're willing to try by having a go, and accept this is not just a race,
You'll wonder why it took so long, to arrive at this so friendly place.
P. S. Thank you Bruce and all the friendly people associated with this Wonderful club for all the enjoyment you project.
